'Ok now what game am I in' said steve. 'You are in a game called Story Wars' said steve. 'What? This is a nice place' said steve so steve went in the elevator then he found a hole bunch of people in it. So they stopped at floor ninety four. 'WHAT THE HECK WHAT IS THIS! Peanut butter jelly time

peanut butter jelly time' sang a very strange banana. Ok that was a very strange floor hopefully the next floor isn't so strange' said steve. So now they were on floor sixty eight It wasn't very strange but it was scary very scary he was in five nights at freddy's 4 (which is a horror game) so he opened a door and there was a very scary jumpscare of freddy. 'Ahhhhh!' screamed steve. And the person behind him opened the other door and had a jump scare of bonnie. (and he fainted) Then they teleported back in the elevator and went down to floor fifty two. 'Ah this is a nice one. A nice paradise island. this is nice sadly i only get to stay here for a minute' well better make the most of it. DAM i barely got any time oh well' said steve. But this time the elevator wasn't taking him to a new floor it was teleporting to his new game called The normal city. but this one will be hard for steve to survive. 'Whoo so where are we now cool it looks like a nice city. Oh i've seen some of Nowdotheharlemshake games let's go check out his house first cool i never knew he had a ps4! (which is a gaming console) well since he's not here I guess I could sneak on his game called alien survival it looks fun' but when steve pressed play. He got put into the game. Aliens were coming from outside he had to hide. 'Ahh i want my mummy please!' Screamed steve but it wasn't that good of an idea because now all the aliens were banging on the door. Steve acted quickly and jumped out the window it worked all the aliens thought he was still in there he had a chance! Then all of a sudden all the aliens disappeared as if it was magic. 'yay yay i survived so now i know not to press play on that game in Nowdotheharlemshake house again. Next steve went over to a boat shaped house. 'How could this go wrong' said steve ooh a movie so steve watched a movie called pirates of the caribbean but after he had watched the movie there was a pirate ship outside shooting cannon balls. Steve ran out of the house it had destroyed the house. 'Arghh pirates some people just don't let you watch your movies! i mean not exactly my movie but who cares no one is even in this city'. So next steve went to a dark metal room. There was a button now steve can not resist not pressing a button he pressed it and everything turned dark suddenly he was teleported outside then he saw something that made his heart sink. It was jason! 'Ahhhhh' said steve. He had to run from him otherwise he would die. 'Why does this city have so much freaky things why' suddenly like the aliens he disappeared. 'Wow at least i know everything disappears when its evil' then steve was teleporting to his next game called epic minigames.
